Your Score Analysis

(325-375) Optimal

Congratulations! You have been taking care of yourself, and most likely have a firm understanding of the relationship between your health and your mind, body, spirit, and emotions. Continue to learn deeper truths about yourself and address your changing needs as you evolve in life to maintain your optimal health. As an individual with such positive habits and practices, you are a shining example of how to live a great life. Spread your knowledge and keep up the good work!

(275-324) Excellent

You have been working hard to develop a greater understanding of yourself, and it shows. By actively participating in your own health, you have created positive patterns in your life and have left destructive old habits in the past. As you continue to find and correct the hidden sources of your problems, you will find a deeper joy in everyday living and see more benefits in how you feel.

(225-274) Good

You have probably started feeling the connection between your body, mind, spirit, and emotions, and can sense when things are going wrong. Continue to make changes in your life that reflect taking an active role in creating your own health. As problems come up, use them as opportunities to discover more about how you function and find positive ways to correct them. Connect with others that have similar views and goals of optimal health as you build up your support network. Avoid starting any bad or unhealthy habits, as you have already worked hard to get this healthy!

(175-224) Fair

When it comes to your overall health, there are a few things missing. Start cultivating a stronger connection between your body, mind, spirit, and emotions to encourage better health and wellness. Look inward to find hidden beliefs and behaviors that are preventing you from achieving optimal health. Now is also the time to begin learning positive ways of correcting any negative behaviors and creating more balance in your life. By working to establish a strong foundation now, you will soon be able to build a nourishing lifestyle for your future.

(125-174) Below Average

Things may not too bad at this time, but you are heading down a dangerous road. If you haven't already, start making changes in your life that will strengthen your body, mind, spirit, and emotions. Look for others that have similar goals of optimal health and establish a good support network. Continue finding positive actions to replace unhealthy or negative habits, and practice them daily. Before long you will be feeling and looking great!

(75-124) Poor

This is definitely the time to start making changes before things get any more difficult. Taking charge and putting your health first is very important for you right now. Knowledge is power, so this is a great time to start learning healthy new habits and use them to replace the negative things in your life. Share your new thoughts and aspirations with others, and establish a support network. Focus on your goal of optimal health, and make decisions that reflect that goal. Remember to keep asking for help if you need it!

(0-75) Extremely Unhealthy

Something needs to change, and fast! If the unhealthy patterns in your life are not already creating illness, they soon will. It is vital that you take control of the situation and make several positive changes in how you are living. Start learning new ways to work healthy habits into your life and do them daily! Making improvements is much easier with support, so talk with others about what you are doing. If there are people in your life do not support these changes, find more who will. Don't be afraid to ask for help if you are struggling or feel you need it. Maintaining a positive outlook is extremely important, so start keeping track of the things you are grateful for in life. Things can only go up from here!
